Branko Jeren played the major role in developing Croatian Internet in early '90ties while he served as Minister of Science and Technology.

Ever since then, as a true visionary he sponsored, initiated and lead activities involving technology in education.

He organized the first lecture held by teleconference in Croatia delivered by prof. Hrvoje Babić in 1997.

Some related papers:

From:

https://learning-theories.org/ - Learning Theories

Permanent link:

https://learning-theories.org/doku.php?id=people:branko_jeren&rev=1299410055

Last update: 2023/06/19 15:49